

Announcement of Walailak University Research Publication Award

Walailak University aims to emphasize the importance of research publication by supporting the dissemination of full research articles and reviews as well as to encourage the researchers to create high quality articles serving both national and international higher education communities. Accordingly, the program offers awards for research publication. The details are as follows.

Criteria of eligible applicant:

- 1.) The applicant must be an academic employee of Walailak University as well as the corresponding author.

Article type specifications:

- 1.) The article has to be a research article, a full article, or a review.
- 2.) The research article must be conducted during the applicant's period as an employee of Walailak University, and neither a part nor the whole of the thesis pursuant to the applicant's course of study.
- 3.) The applicant can propose multiple articles for awards, with the following requirements:
 - 3.1) Each article must be published in an international journal included in either the SCOPUS or Web of Science (ISI) database and accepted from November 2019 onwards.
 - 3.2) The awards for publication are categorized based on a quartile score. Please check at www.scimagojr.com or www.webofknowledge.com for more information.

If a multidisciplinary journal attains different quartile metrics for each of their different subject categories, the highest Q index is preferred for award determination.

- 1.) Quartile 1: 20,000 baht
- 2.) Quartile 2: 10,000 baht
- 3.) Quartile 3-4: 5,000 baht

Request for financial support:

- 1.) The applicant must be a corresponding author of the research article. In case of multiple corresponding authors, the rewards will be divided equally. However, only the academic employees of Walailak University will receive the award.
- 2.) To request for financial support, an authorized signature of the applicant who meets all the eligibility criteria above is required.
- 3.) The corresponding author must attach two copies of the original article.

The award application will be approved by the Vice President for Research and Social Services.

Announced on 7 November 2019.

(Professor Dr. Sombat Thamrongthanyawong)

President of Walailak University